

K. Anne Wilhelm

Vice President, employed by leading behavioral consulting firm, MPR, since 1996. As an Analyst of Behavioral Interviews and now as a Consultant and Senior Presenter to company executives and managers throughout the United States and Canada. Consulting work includes areas such as talent acquisition and management, culture studies, growth strategies, team analysis and behavioral benchmarking. An acclaimed public speaker in the area of recruitment, selection and management of talented personnel.

Anne is Applauded and Valued:

- Through her consulting work Anne is strongly oriented to initiate positive change, provide effective staffing and talent management systems, and to help build organizations with top human capital.
- Through her presentations Anne delivers a clear process for an organization's survival and growth – "Talent Management".
- Anne interacts with the seminar audience extremely well - involving them in the learning process.
- Anne weaves relevant stories and humor into her presentations that keeps the attention of all attendees.
- Anne provides seminar attendees with practical principles, advice, tools and models to help them make wise staffing decisions.
- Clients rely on Anne's expertise for years after one of her seminars.

Background:

- Bachelor of Arts Degree in Psychology; Concentration in Business Management and Organizational Behavior conferred by Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois.
- Experience in Human Resources through Advocate Health Care Services in Oak Brook, Illinois.
- Executive Coach
- Native of the Chicago Area
- Instructor of Hatha Yoga for Health

K. Anne Wilhelm

What people are saying about Anne:

“Very impressive speaker. I do a lot of speaking and at times found myself picking up pointers from her speaking ability – has a powerful way of presenting at all levels. Kept the flow going – made us focus on the facts not assumptions. Obviously very into what she does and the company she works for. By far the best speaker that we’ve had.”

Betty Schoch – Branch Manager / Morgan Services, Inc.

“Anne was articulate and informative, providing instruction in a congenial atmosphere.”

Karyn M. Puleo – Controller / Vectron International

“Anne obviously loves what she does and shows her belief in [the MPR] system. She presents the material using relative examples and humor that brings the point across to everyone.”

Chad Pitre – Talent Coordinator / Point Eight Power

“Anne was great. Good enthusiasm. Adapted well to our structure.”

John Drake – Account Director / Wong Doody

“Excellent presenter of this information. She kept me engaged throughout the entire day and a half. My attention span did not waiver!”

Monique Ellis – Sales Manager / Point Eight Power

“Anne did a great job – personable, knowledgeable, good at getting participation. Flexible and confident. Kept us on track..”

Jim Ballard – President / Rocky Mountain Drywall

About KeenHire, Inc.

KeenHire, Inc. delivers behavioral interviewing, talent assessment and selection solutions to corporate hiring authorities and recruiters & search firms whose businesses depend on making the right hire the first time. Using a set of carefully developed and proven job benchmarking and assessment instruments combined with the firm’s proprietary behavioral interviewing software call KeenView, KeenHire, Inc. clients eliminate flawed hiring procedures, accurately assess the performance of potential new hires, free themselves from costly hiring mistakes and bring difference makers to the table with unprecedented success. For more information please visit www.KeenHire.com

